EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

OPPORTUNITY FOR MUSICIANS///

MUSIC RECORDING & VIDEO
THE PROJECT

The “Backyard Bonanza” project aims to uncover and nurture musical gold from our very own backyard, in a collaboration with local sound and film artists. Talented musicians will have their music professionally recorded, and a music video produced by leading regional practitioners, resulting in an exhibition and live performance as part of the opening program of the newly developed Albury Regional Art Gallery.

THE OPPORTUNITY

We are looking for talented musical acts who are based in the Murray Catchment area, and have a strong desire to peruse their passion for music. The selected acts will have their original song professionally recorded at the state-of-the-art regional studio, The Cad Factory. Followed by having a music video created by leading filmmaker, Andrew Pearce, who has made music videos for bands including, Eskimo Joe, The Temper Trap and Duran Duran.
