Announcement to parents, students and teachers of Xavier High School, Albury

Acting Schools Consultant - Term 2 2018

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Gavin Dykes as Acting Schools Consultant at the Catholic Schools Office, Wagga Wagga for Term 2 2018.

Gavin has been the Principal of Xavier High School, Albury since 2013. Prior to this he was Deputy Principal of Notre Dame College in Shepparton, and Deputy Principal of FCJ College, Benalla. From 1995-1999 Gavin taught overseas at Five Bridges, Kennington, and St George's Maida Vale, London. He has also held positions as the Religious Education Co-ordinator and Year Co-ordinator at Our Lady of Mercy College, Heidelberg. He has also previously taught at Galen College Wangaratta and Loyola College, Watsonia in Victoria.

Gavin holds a Master of Arts – Education Management and Administration which he obtained in 2002 from the University of London, and a Bachelor of Theology from the Catholic Theological College, Clayton. Gavin is currently completing a Masters of Theology and Leadership.

On behalf of the Diocesan and school community I extend congratulations to Gavin and his family.

Yours in Catholic Education

Mark MacLean
